The Confession of Sin and Supplication for Grace
Almighty and everlasting God, who orders all things in heaven and on earth, and who made all ages a preparation for the coming of Your Son, we confess before You that we have sinned. We have not loved You as we ought. We have exercised false priorities; maintained false concepts of God; taken vows we have not kept; failed to honor Your Lord's Day. Furthermore, we have not loved one another as we ought. We have failed to give honor to whom it is due; failed to preserve life; failed in maintaining purity of heart; taken what is not ours; borne false witness to make ourselves look better; and we have entertained covetous thoughts. O God forgive our sins! We are sorry for them. We look to the merit and mediation of our Savior, Jesus Christ, to wash our sins away. Grant that we may grow in true faith and obedience to the honor of Your great name. Amen.

The Scriptural Assurance of Pardon Hebrews 9:13, 14
For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

The Receiving of Tithes and Offerings

The Offertory Anthem O HOW AMIABLE R. Vaughan Williams
O how amiable are Thy dwellings Thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young, even Thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house. They will be always praising Thee. The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us. Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper Thou our handy-work. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home. (from Psalm 84 & 90)

The Offertory MY REST IS IN HEAVEN Paul S. Jones
Ron Vanderwey

My rest is in heaven, my rest is not here, then why should I murmur at trials severe? Be tranquil, my spirit, the worst that can come but shortens thy journey and hastens thee home. Let trouble and danger my progress oppose, they'll only make heaven more bright at the close. Come joy, then or sorrow whatever may befall one moment in glory will make up for all. A scrip on my back, and a staff in my hand, I march on in haste through an enemy's land. The road may be rough, but it cannot be long. I'll smooth it with hope, and I'll cheer it with song.

* The Offertory Response WE GIVE THEE BUT THINE OWN SCHUMANN
The text for the offertory response is hymn 432, stanza 1
We give thee but thine own, whate'er the gift may be: all that we have is thine alone, a trust, O Lord, from thee.

The Sacrament of Covenant Baptism

Vows of the parents:

1. Do you acknowledge your child's need of the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ and the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit?
2. Do you claim God's covenant promises in (his) behalf, and do you look in faith to the Lord Jesus Christ for (his) salvation, as you do for your own?
3. Do you now unreservedly dedicate your child to God, and promise, in humble reliance upon divine grace, that you will endeavor to set before (him) a godly example, that you will pray with and for (him), that you will teach (him) the doctrines of our holy religion, and that you will strive, by all the means of God's appointment, to bring (him) up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord?

Vows of the congregation:

Do you as a congregation undertake the responsibility of assisting the parents in the Christian nurture of this child?
