The Confession of Sin and Supplication for Grace

Almighty God, who is rich in mercy to all who call upon You, hear us as we humbly confess our sins and seek Your forgiveness. We have broken Your holy laws by our deeds and by our words, and by the sinful affections of our hearts. We confess before You our disobedience and ingratitude; our pride and will-fullness; and all our other failures and shortcomings toward You and toward our fellowmen. Have mercy upon us, Father, and by Your great goodness grant that we may possess the fullness of the Spirit of adoption, freeing us from guilt, and causing us to pursue holiness. By Your gospel, encourage us and save sinners today. We ask expectantly through the mediation of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

The Scriptural Assurance of Pardon Hebrews 9:13, 14

For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

The Offertory THERE IS A RIVER arr. Richard Dickinson
Youth Ensemble

There is a river which delights the City of our God, it flows throughout the Holy place, the temple of the Word. God dwells secure within its gates and never shall be moved, the strength of God is its defense, with swift assurance proved. The river flows through paradise, beside the tree of Life; this tree shall yield the leaves and fruit to heal the nations' strife. No curse is found, the throne of God on which the Lamb shall reign is in the middle of that flood which conquers mortal pain.

* The Offertory Response WE GIVE THEE BUT THINE OWN SCHUMANN
The text for the offertory response is hymn 432, stanza 1
We give thee but thine own, whate'er the gift may be: all that we have is thine alone, a trust, O Lord, from thee.
