The Confession of Sin and Supplication for Grace

O God of grace, Thou hast imputed my sin to my substitute, and hast imputed His righteousness to my soul. But in my Christian walk I am still in rags; my best prayers are stained with sin; my confessions of wrong are so many aggravations of sin; my receiving the Spirit is tainted with selfishness. I need to repent of my repentance. I need my tears to be washed. I have no robe to bring to cover my sins, no loom to weave my own righteousness. I am always standing clothed in filthy garments, and by grace am always receiving change of raiment, for Thou dost always justify the ungodly. I am always going into the far country, and always returning home as a prodigal, always saying, Father, forgive me, and Thou art always bringing forth the best robe. Grant me never to lose sight of the exceeding sinfulness of sin, the exceeding righteousness of salvation, the exceeding glory of Christ, the exceeding beauty of holiness, and the exceeding wonder of grace. In Jesus Name we pray, Amen.

The Scriptural Assurance of Pardon

Titus 3:5-7

He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy... through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

The Receiving of Tithes and Offerings

The Offertory Anthem CALL TO REMEMBRANCE Richard Farrant
Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy tender mercies and Thy loving kindness, which hath been ever of old. O remember not the sins and offences of my youth, but according to Thy mercy, think Thou on me, O Lord for Thy goodness.
