The Confession of Sin and Supplication for Grace

O Lord, we openly admit that You know us thoroughly. Our deepest secrets are open before You. You know our thoughts before they are conceived in our minds. We cannot hide from You. Therefore we ask that You discover unto us our sins so that we may humble ourselves again in Your presence and seek Your forgiveness and grace. We admit we have tolerated sinful thoughts about power, lust, greed, jealousy, malice and other things that grieve Your heart. We have committed sins of omission and commission. But we seek Your mercy and cleansing from our sins by the blood of Christ. And we thank You for Your Spirit who enables us to walk in holiness and obedience. Give us the grace to please You this day and forever. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Scriptural Assurance of Pardon Titus 3:5-7
He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy... through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

The Receiving of Tithes and Offerings

The Offertory Anthem Timothy Dudley-Smith
NO TRAMP OF SOLDIER'S MARCHING FEET
Covenant Choir

No tramp of soldiers' marching feet with banners and with drums, no sound of music's martial beat: "The King of glory comes!" To greet what pomp of kingly pride no bells in triumph ring, no city gates swing open wide: "Behold, behold your King!" And yet He comes. The children cheer; with palms His path is strown. With every step the cross draws near: The King of glory's throne. Astride a colt He passes by as loud hosannas ring, or else the very stones would cry "Behold, behold your King!" What fading flowers His road adorn; the palms, how soon laid down! No bloom or leaf but only thorn the King of glory's crown. The soldiers mock, the rabble cries, the streets with tumult ring, as Pilate to the mob replies, "Behold, behold your King!" Now He who bore for mortals' sake the cross and all its pains and chose a servant's form to take, the King of glory reigns. Hosanna to the Savior's name till heaven's rafters ring, and all the ransomed host proclaim "Behold, behold your King!"
