

change: she had to “change” her name from Heather (which is almost impossible for Spanish-speakers to pronounce) to her middle name, Rebekah. She has now moved into her own place in a barrio (neighborhood) of Madrid and is immersed in the culture and language there. Her fulltime “job” is language school – she is in class for 12 hours a week learning vocabulary, pronunciation, grammar, literature, etc. Outside of class she must spend many hours in memorization, exercises, and reading. She is looking for some native Spanish-speaking young women who want to learn English to participate in intercambios (interchanges) – where they will help each other with language studies. Her language studies are at the university where she will be doing evangelism and outreach ministries. Pray for her language skills to improve quickly and for new friends. Pray also for her to find a faithful church to call home for the next 3 years. Pray also for her relationships with the other members of her team. Pray for her safety and her growth in grace in a foreign land. You can keep up with Heather on Facebook.com or on her blog.

Elizabeth Johnson looks forward to November when she hopes, by the grace of God, to be practicing her nursing skills in Trujillo, Peru. Elizabeth graduated from nursing school three years ago and has been honing her pediatric nursing skills as a nurse at Greenville Memorial Hospital. She will be caring for patients at the existing clinic in Wichanza and doing home visits in the neighborhoods of Esperanza (a large area of Trujillo with over 100,000 inhabitants and no hospital). She is hopeful that Peru mission will receive the funds and complete the first floor of a new hospital/clinic in Arevalo. Elizabeth will begin language studies for approximately four months in the south of Peru when she arrives in November. Then she will work for 2 years in Trujillo, Peru. The mission combines the preaching of the gospel with Christ-like care for the bodies and souls of the people who hear the Gospel. Please pray for the completion of her fund raising (she is approximately 25% away from the needed funds). We urge any of our members that are able to pledge $25, $50, or more per month to help her complete her support. You may give by designating support on you giving to Second Presbyterian Church or by going to Perumission.org where you can give by credit card, debit card, check, or direct withdrawal. You can keep up with Elizabeth on Facebook.com and at Perumission.org.

In His Service,

Letter From The Associate Minister Missions Report

One of the great privileges we have as a local body of Christ is to be connected to the worldwide gospel work of our Father and our God. We, as a church, as families and as individuals are involved in local evangelization and outreach. Through our missionaries, that involvement extends beyond our region and even our country, to the far corners of the earth. We are especially blessed to have some of our own number involved in cross cultural missions. This has been true of our church through the decades, starting in the 1930's with Mary Beam going to the Sudan and then Gordon and Bobbie Houser to Costa Rica.

By God's grace and mercy, we have four members that are currently on, or going to, the foreign mission field: Richard and Kate Brueck, Heather Waugh, and Elizabeth Johnson. Let's catch up with each of "our" missionaries:

Richard and Kate Brueck are serving the Lord in Kenya at the Rifiki village near Nairobi on a 2-year mission assignment. This is one of ten orphanages in African countries that seek to model for both other missions and for their host countries what a faithful, Christ-centered orphanage can accomplish (there are millions of orphans in Africa). They are nearing the halfway point and have settled into their ministries. Richard instructs the headmasters of local schools on the use of a Rifiki Bible curriculum (much of which has been and is being written by Pastor Phillips). He also teaches classes in the Rifiki village of almost 100 orphans and as many town students. In addition, Richard preaches in local evangelical churches – he is inculcating them in expositional preaching, which is rarely heard in the churches there. He is also taking online courses from Reformed Theological Seminary as he seeks to complete his Master of Divinity Degree when they return to the USA. Kate is keeping busy as well as she teaches music to 200 students from both the village and the local towns. She also leads a variety of women's ministries including one that helps the local women become more financially secure by selling handmaid crafts in the USA. You can keep up with the Bruecks on Facebook.com or at kazuri-kenya.blogspot.com. Please pray for the Holy Spirit to bless them and their ministries, to convert many, to build up those who are saved, to unite the team, and to send the gospel forth to thousands who have never heard.

Heather Waugh has been on the field in Madrid, Spain, for a little over a month. She is acclimating to life in a foreign country and huge city (Madrid has almost 6 million people.) She has already had one major life
