Senior High at Gravitopia
Friday, August 26th
7-8pm

God, and receiving Christ as my Lord and Savior. I'm not exactly sure how I knew how to pray, but I know that my Dad taught me to pray, I heard my grandfather pray, I heard my Sunday school teacher pray, and I heard my pastors pray. It is amazing how God draws His people to Himself! A couple of Sundays later I made "the walk" down the aisle and then met with the youth director. I knew that walking down the aisle was not the basis for my salvation, but Jesus Christ was. A few Sundays later I was baptized with water as a sign and seal of my union with Christ. I know now that my conversion was brought about by God Himself through years of wooing with the preaching of the gospel, being taken to church by my parents, and seeing godly men and women live out the gospel before me.

MY CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE:

After my conversion I immediately began to go to youth group and developed a close relationship with the youth pastor Leslie Spiller and his family. I began to read and study the Bible on my own and I went to both the Sunday morning and evening worship services. I began to grow in grace and love for God and His people like I had never known before. The next year I was off to Belhaven College where I received a soccer scholarship for four years. I became involved in RUF and learned much about the Reformed faith through John Stone (and later Corey Pelton), the campus minister. During this time, I also began to visit Trinity Presbyterian Church and was amazed and a bit overwhelmed at all the sound teaching I was hearing. Mike Ross continued to preach the word faithfully and the Holy Spirit used that in my life. I also met my mentor and life-long friend Scott Pierce, who took me under his wing and still continues to teach me about being a Christian. God was very gracious in providing friends who invited me to both RUF and Trinity, and He has proved to be faithful still. My four years at Belhaven were wonderful and I was stretched tremendously in many areas of my life. After college, through the counsel of many, I decided to go to seminary and follow where I thought God was leading. Our Triune God has done a tremendous work in this sinner's life and He continues to make me more like Christ each day. I am thankful that He does this through His word, and through His people, especially through my wife Rebecca. Rebecca Wells Bailey and I met our freshman year at Belhaven, and were married six years later. The Lord has used our 5 children, Hannah-11, Samuel-9, Andrew-7, Michael-5, and Alice-3 as a source of humility and joy. He has given me better than I deserve and He shows me my need for Him continually. As I look back on what God has done in my life I have to say, "Glory be to God!"

Personal Testimony

MY CONVERSION:

I was born and reared in Tupelo, MS and lived in a loving home with one brother and both parents. Church was part of growing up for me, it was just part of life. We went as a family on Sunday mornings to Sunday school and then to the worship service at Calvary Baptist Church, but we didn't really go to anything else. I wasn't really involved in youth group; however, I did play church basketball with many of the youth and found that to be a way into the group. Church was never a bad thing, it was just part of the week. After church we would go to my grandparents for lunch where the whole family would meet for food and fellowship. Looking back I realize that it was a great learning experience. It taught me the importance of the family and that families are not perfect. Although we were not very involved in the church, I certainly learned some beneficial things simply by going (being taken) to church. One thing I learned was that one day out of the week was different. I didn't really understand all the details, but I knew that it wasn't like Monday through Saturday. My parents did a great service by simply taking me to church where I heard the gospel preached, and saw God's people praising Him and keeping His Sabbath holy by at least going to worship. God certainly used these things to woo me to Himself when I was sixteen or seventeen. I remember lying on my bed one night and confessing my sins to
