MARK 10:17-31

And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.'" And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth." And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were amazed at his words...

Missionary of the Week

JOSHUA JACOBS

Joshua first visited France as a teenager, a trip full of the same sights, sounds, and tastes that tourists experience and love. But a conversation on a train with a French Christian, traveling to a small house church, made the greatest impression on him during that first visit. Since that time, the Lord has brought French Christians and non-Christians into Joshua's life, increasing his desire to assist French congregations in gospel ministry. Joshua is married to Charline, a French native. Charline became a Christian as an adult and is now eager to use her gifts to serve in youth ministry, discipleship, and administration. Please pray for Joshua and Charline as they serve the growing congregation of Lyon Gerland Church, a Reformed and Evangelical church in Lyon, while preparing to plant a new church elsewhere in France. Please also pray for discipleship and evangelism opportunities through social connections and outreach.
