MARK 11:12-25

On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it. And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple. And he was teaching them and saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers." And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching...

Missionary of the Week

ETHAN MCCARTER

Ethan McCarter graduated from Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary in the spring of 2022, and moved his family to Northern Ireland in September of that same year. He is married to Laura, and they have two sons, Jean Luc and Pyran. Ethan served as Ministerial Assistant with the Crumlin Evangelical Presbyterian Church on the west side of Belfast for the past two years. The McCarters recently moved into northern Belfast. They are waiting on approval for their visas and hope to have an ordination/installation soon at Crosscollyer Street Church. The church at Crosscollyer Street is small and has mainly elderly members. They have been without a minister for a long time. Please pray for the light of the Gospel to reach into the darkness of that area.
