MARK 11:27-12:12

And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him, and they said to him, "By what authority are you doing these things, or who gave you this authority to do them?" Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Was the baptism of John from heaven or from man? Answer me." And they discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But shall we say, 'From man'?"—they were afraid of the people, for they all held that John really was a prophet. So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things." And he began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a pit for the winepress and built a tower, and leased it to tenants and went into another country...

Missionary of the Week

STEVE JESSEN

Steve and his wife Julie live in Stanley, NC and attend First Presbyterian Church of Stanley. Steve is a TE in the PCA and has experience in ministry as well as a General Contractor. Steve is the Mission to North America (MNA) Disaster Response Ministry Regional Specialist for the Carolinas since late 2022. Calvary Presbytery has a ministry called Word & Deed which provides disaster response services within Calvary Presbytery and partners with the regional MNA Disaster Response Ministry. When disaster strikes an area, communities find themselves vulnerable, fearful, and in need of hope. MNA is on the front lines of disaster relief, being the hands and feet of Jesus and equipping the church to serve their people well in the wake of disaster.
