DANIEL 1:1-21

In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels of the house of God. And he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his god. Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, his chief eunuch, to bring some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility, youths without blemish, of good appearance and skillful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding learning, and competent to stand in the king's palace, and to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. The king assigned them a daily portion of the food that the king ate, and of the wine that he drank. They were to be educated for three years, and at the end of that time they were to stand before the king. Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah of the tribe of Judah...

Missionary of the Week

JAEWON PARK

Jaewon graduated from Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary in 2024. He has served as an intelligence officer in the Republic of Korea Army in Seoul, as a pastoral intern in Grand Rapids, and most recently, as a pastoral intern in Montgomery, Alabama. He returned to South Korea in December 2024 to plant a Reformed, ordinary-means-of-grace international church in Pyeongtaek. Jaewon and his wife Jesslyn have a daughter, Chaely, and a son, Zion. Their third child, Liam, was born at just 25 weeks the beginning of February. Pray for his ongoing development and Jesslyn's recovery. Pray for the Parks as a family, that God would give them strength, wisdom, and grace for each day and pray that the gospel would prevail even through personal setbacks and limitations and that they would witness its power with their own eyes.
