ASCENDED AWAY FATHER
JESUS KNOW LAID
MARY SAID WEeping

Read Today's Scripture

JOHN 20:11-18

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"—and that he had said these things to her.

Missionary of the Week

HISPANIC MINISTRIES ROGER DYE

A lifetime of missionary work has prepared Roger Dye for this next phase of ministry as Assistant to the Director of Hispanic Ministries with FamilyLife Global. Roger grew up in Mexico, son of missionaries Dick and Ann Dye. Giving his life to the Lord as a child, Roger's childhood was marked by his parents' ministry in the villages and a church planting movement in the cities. Roger graduated from CIU and holds an M.Div. from Covenant Seminary. His wife Laura holds a B.A. from Covenant College and worked in Student Development at The King's College in Briarcliff Manor, NY. In 1992 Roger and Laura met while raising support as single missionaries. They married the same year. Roger pastored a church in Gastonia, NC before going to Chile in 1998. Through sixteen years of church planting with Mission to the World in Chile, God led the Dyes to pursue biblical marriage education for church leaders throughout Latin America. The Dyes currently reside in Winnsboro, SC, ministering throughout Latin America as well as the Hispanic communities of NC, SC, GA, and TN. They desire to train church leaders to develop local marriage ministries throughout Latin America.
