DANIEL 5:1-31

King Belshazzar made a great feast for a thousand of his lords and drank wine in front of the thousand. Belshazzar, when he tasted the wine, commanded that the vessels of gold and of silver that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem be brought, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. Then they brought in the golden vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. They drank wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone. Immediately the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, opposite the lampstand. And the king saw the hand as it wrote. Then the king's color changed, and his thoughts alarmed him; his limbs gave way, and his knees knocked together. The king called loudly to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers. The king declared to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."...

Ministry of the Week

SPC WEBSITE
NATE JOHNSON

The online ministry of Second Presbyterian Church exists to promote and disseminate sound, biblical teaching to the people of SPC and to the world. The online ministry of Second Presbyterian Church began to take shape between 2005-2008 with digitally recording sermons, starting up an audio-only livestream, and creating the first SPC website. Pastor Richard D. Phillips began his ministry at SPC during this time in July 2007. There are many tools and resources that make up the online ministry of SPC. Some of those include the website with detailed information about the church, our livestream platforms, the sermon and teaching archives, signing up for SPC events, accessing our weekly publications, Android and IOS mobile apps, and online giving. The online ministry of SPC started out small with an uncertain future, but has grown into a resource that assists thousands per week by connecting them to a faithful church and providing faithful teaching from the Bible.
